2

Once installed, open the Slimming World Magazine app. The very first time you use the app, you'll see a 'how to use this app guide'. Swipe left to view the handy hints, then click the X in the top right corner.

3

You'll then see a 'storefront' with all the available issues of the magazine. Each one will be listed with a price button (£2.99), and a subscribe button. Please do not click on either of these at this stage!

If you accidentally click one of these buttons, you will be taken to a payment site. Please don't go any further! The May/June issue of Slimming World Magazine is a free gift for all attending group members.

As all payments are taken via your app store (Apple or Google Play), we won't be able to issue any refunds for accidental purchase.

4

Click on the three vertical dots at the top-right, select Account and tap into 'Existing Subscriptions'.

If you have an iPad you might not see these vertical dots. Instead, skip this step and tap the  account icon instead.

5

On this page, enter your code as supplied by your Consultant (Group members) or you'll find this in the email we sent to you (Online members). Tap the 'Redeem Code' button.

If you have redeemed a code against any of our previous free gift issues, you will need to press 'Log Out' before entering your new code. Don't worry – you'll still have access to any previously downloaded issues, free or paid-for.

6

You'll then be returned automatically to the 'storefront' screen, and as if by magic, the price for our latest issue will have been replaced with a 'Get' or 'Read' button. Tap to download and enjoy free of charge!
